

PA SEA GRANT BY THE NUMBERS

Pennsylvania Sea Grant is a partnership of NOAA, Penn State University, and The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. "By the numbers" reflects the most recent annual reporting data from 2014-2015 (unless otherwise noted).

$919,599
Funded 22 research projects from 14 institutions across Pennsylvania

RESEARCH EXTENSION EDUCATION

$12.5M

VALUE OF 1,700 CONSERVED ACRES INCLUDING 2.6 MILES OF LAKE ERIE COASTLINE & 10.1 MILES OF TRIBUTARY SHORELINE (SINCE 2004)

17,646

STUDENTS PARTICIPATED IN CLASSROOM AND HANDS-ON PROGRAMS

21,229
Participants in outreach programs

32,702
Volunteer hours

285
Educators trained

17
Graduate students and fellows supported

34
Undergraduate students supported

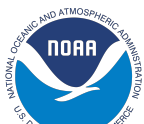

261
Acres of coastal habitat protected or conserved

14
Sustainable development practices implemented by coastal communities

470
Acres of ecologically important land improved by removing invasive plant species

10
Ecosystem-based tools, technologies, and information services developed

53
Resource managers used ecosystem-based tools

UPDATED MARCH 2017